

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Content	Author(s)	Pages
1.Reclaiming Indigenous Sovereignty through Postcolonial Discourse in the Global South: Land, Knowledge, and Self-Determination Beyond Colonial Modernity	Dr. Aditi	01 - 21
2.From Ordination to Education: Reconfiguring Female Religious Authority among Tibetan Nuns in Exile	Madhav Choudhary	22 - 38
3.Between Coercion and Agency: Abolition and the Afterlives of Slavery in Kerala (1843–1941)	Anagha Shyam	39 - 66
4.Santhal Oral Narratives and the Rewriting of the Indigenous Past as Counter-History in a Polarised India	Dr. Saptarshi Sengupta	67 - 83
5.Isfahan on Paper: Naqsha, the Covered Bazaar, and Persianate Urban Knowledge in the Making of Shahjahanabad	Amir Abbas Mansoori Mehr	84 - 102
6.Food as Text and Data: Bhadrakok Identity Across Literary and Digital Spaces using Mixed-methods	Srabani Biswas	103 - 128
7.“Comfort girls-women” as Military Sex Slaves in the Japanese Empire (1937-1945)	Rita Ferreira Costa, Et al.	129 - 152
8.The Jurisprudence of Aversion: The Lepers Act and the Regulation of the ‘Aesthetic Nuisance’ in Colonial India	Nandini Sharma	153 -174
9.British Encounters with the Indian Summer through Women’s Travel Narratives and Memoirs (1750-1900)	Chitranshu Tomar	175 - 199
10.The Economics of the Sacred: Religious Economy and Transformation of Kolkata’s Durga Puja	Dr. Malinee Mukherjee	200 - 215
11.Evaluating the Doab Crisis under Muhammad bin Tughlaq’s Reign: Excessive Taxation or Climatic Adversities	Md. Zillal Hossain	216 - 229

12. From Hijra/Khusra to Transgender: Changing Language and Identity in Jammu (J&K)	Lakshana Gupta, Et. al.	230 - 253
13. "As Funds Permit": Colonial Management of the Lunatic Asylums in the United Provinces	Meghna Pathak	254- 274
14. Where the Forest Became Law: Walāya, Landnahme, and the Political Theology of Khan Jahan Ali's Khalīfatābād	Sheikh Touhidul Islam	275 - 295
15. The Press of Allahabad and the Politics of Womanhood: Chand and Nationalist Print Culture, 1922–1938	Mehul Teotia	296 - 313
16. Fragments of the Past, Lives of the Little: An Archaeological Perspectives on Children and Childhood in South Asia	Ankit Chanchal	314 - 353
17. Nowhere to Call Home: Dalits, Displacement and the Politics of Being 'Unwanted' in Post-Partition South Asia	Astik Mukherjee	354 - 372
18. An Archaeological and Ethnographic Exploration of Ritual Survivals within Chhath Puja: Evidence for the Persistence of Early Agrarian Traditions in the Middle Ganga Plains	Skand Manjul, Et. al.	373 - 402